BCDA Shamrock Tournament

One of BCDA's longest running tournaments is this Saturday at Brady's Irish Pub. The Shamrock attracts players from around the state in addition to local league players. They compete in five events including Mixed Doubles, Men's and Ladies Doubles, and Men's and Ladies Singles. The chalker prize tradition will continue as well as 50/50's to benefit the League and the State Team. The State Team will also be selling $5 a plate of homemade food to help raise funds for their travel to Orlando. Come out and play, meet new players, and chalk a match to enter your name for a prize.

Tim Quirey started playing darts 30 years ago in Dallas, Texas. When he came to Florida, he was playing in the West Broward League. He currently plays in the Power 19 Silver Division, on Straight to the Point's team. He has four dogs at home and four cars that he likes tinkering with. He is very handy and is known as the go-to-guy for fixing things. In his spare time, he likes listening to music and one of his favorite unique items is his beer barrel dart board. When the doors are closed, it looks like a barrel hanging on the wall, but when you open the doors, the dart board is inside. Very cool!

Sean Todd is currently playing in the A Gold Division, on The Blind Squirrels team. He started playing darts back in 1998 in the B Division, here, in Broward. In 2005, he stopped playing in league, got married, and had a daughter, named Sidney. So, after many years, he's now very happy to have a night out, throwing darts, and having fun. In his spare time, he like listening to music and occasionally going fishing. Sean is the Director of Operations at the Jason Taylor Foundation and absolutely loves his job. Drink of choice: Tequila.
